

PUGET SOUND MATERIALS EXPO

Free Event! Free Museum Access! Free Hors D'oeuvres! No Host Bar!

When: Tuesday, February 28th

SAMPE Exhibits: 2 - 6PM

Museum Exhibits: 2 - 5PM

Keynote: 6PM

Where: The Museum of Flight

9404 E Marginal Way S, Seattle

Park behind main museum by "Boeing Field"

<http://www.museumofflight.org/directions>

Hosted by the Seattle Chapter of

SAMPE Society for the Advancement of Material & Process Engineering

exhibits

Suppliers of materials, tooling, manufacturing, processing equipment and services for composite and related industries will be on hand with tabletop displays. Come and see the latest and greatest in new developments! Get questions answered and your materials and process problems solved. Free raffle prizes - must be present to win.

keynote presentation:

NIKE - Fred G. Fagergren:

Nike and Performance Innovation

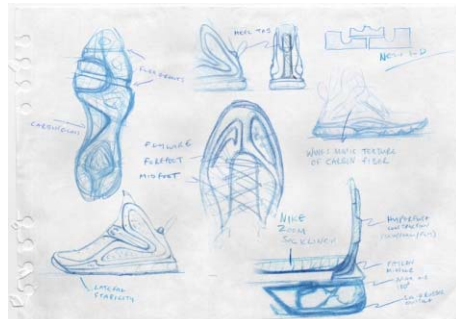

Photo and Sketch Courtesy NIKE, Inc. – LEBRON 9

Come join us for our annual Puget Sound Material Expo to be held on Tuesday, 28 February 2012 at the Museum of Flight. This free event will showcase many of our chapter sponsor companies. The event will end with a keynote presented by Fred Fagergren from Nike. He will speak on Nike's Legacy to bring Inspiration and Innovation to every Athlete in the World. Fred is the Finite Element Analysis Manager for Nike with FEA engineers working in Oregon, Texas, Taiwan, and Korea.

For additional information or questions, please contact us: events@sampeseattle.org

See Sponsor lists, sign up for free newsletter at www.sampeseattle.org